

Charles C. Gardner

Associate

(203) 533-6254

cgardner@melicklaw.com

Southbury

New York

PRACTICE AREAS

General Liability, Professional Liability, Product Liability

BAR ADMISSIONS

Connecticut, New York

EDUCATION:

Vanderbilt University, J.D. (2009), Dartmouth College, B.A. History, cum laude (2004)

Charlie is an associate in the firm's Southbury, Connecticut office. His practice focuses on the defense of general liability, professional liability and product liability matters before the Connecticut and New York state courts.

Previously, he represented defendants in medical malpractice and personal injury cases with a law firm based in Stamford. He also has experience representing clients in administrative hearings and at arbitrations. Following law school, he served in a judicial clerkship for the judges of the Connecticut Superior Court where he assisted with civil litigation matters.

Charlie resides with his wife, Kathy, and three sons in Newtown, Connecticut, where he is active in town matters and serves on the Board of Assessment Appeals.