

Jacqueline A. Crockwell

Associate

(401) 522-9181

jcrockwell@melicklaw.com

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/jacqueline-crockwell/>

Providence

PRACTICE AREAS

General Liability, Asbestos, Environmental Litigation, Product Liability, Toxic Torts

BAR ADMISSIONS

Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Vermont

EDUCATION:

Salve Regina University (2015), Roger Williams University School of Law (2018)

Jacqueline is an associate in the Providence office. Her practice focuses on toxic torts, products liability, and premises liability. Jacqueline represents manufacturers of a variety of products including valves, pumps, boilers, furnaces, and water heaters. She also handles general liability matters.

Jacqueline is a cum laude graduate of Salve Regina University, and Roger Williams University School of Law. Her experience at Roger Williams included the opportunity to serve as a Rule 9 Student Attorney for the City of Providence assisting in the prosecution of housing code violations. Jacqueline also balanced her legal studies with work as a law clerk for Melick & Porter, where she gained extensive insurance defense experience working with clients in both the firm's Boston and Providence offices.

AFFILIATIONS

Rhode Island Bar Association, New Hampshire Bar Association